

Connection Through Art

Live art connects people in a way that is so rare in this digital era. Get your guests talking, feeling, and feeling inspired and excited. Painting conveys emotions, bridges barriers, and creates beautiful memories, and being able to share that in real time with others is a really dynamic form of entertainment that goes deeper. with live music to really create a one of a kind experience for you and your guests. In the 2-4 hours it takes to paint a live portrait, I encourage people to engage, ask questions, take photos, and really become a part of the experience.

Live art connects your guests emotionally to the event and forms a lasting impression. Build a positive brand image or share a special memory together at the family reunion, live painting can form that connection.

Testimonials

"Emmy painted both of our Miss and Miss Teen Indiana USA contests and did such an amazing job capturing their essence in such a short amount of time. Everyone was so excited and it was a really special gift for us to give to them."

- Jscot, Director Miss IN USA

"Emmy is such a professional. I hired her to do a portrait for an art event that was auctioned off, it was an amazing experience with the music. There was a bidding war for the painting at the end, but at the end, I wanted it most."

-Kaitlyn, owner of Krescendo LLC

"I hired Emmy to paint a colorful portrait of me at my birthday party and made the day so incredibly special. I felt like a celebrity, everyone loved seeing it come to life. It literally captured my aura."

- Ella
